

The Day At Drayton Manor by Giorgio

1. There we were,
At the gate,
Waiting to go in,
Our tickets there,
Handed in,
And there we were-
WE WERE IN!

2. There they were-
All the rides,
Standing up so high,
The children there,
Shouting there,
Waiting for the rides.

3. Other kids,
Scared to death,
Of the death traps,
So high up and so monstrous
(That they thought they'd sit them all out).

4. Then we stopped;
To have a break,
From all the madness rides,
Across from us,
The drunken barrels:
Which everyone truly loved,
Yet children knew,
They shouldn't have gone on,
Two seconds after their lunch.

5. A few more rides,
The worst I seem to think:
The Pirate Ship, G Force
And all the crazy ones,

6. Below the rides,
The gift shop,
Where children spent the most-
On fidget spinners and tubs of sweets,
And everything like that.

7. After that we were all tired out-
And wanted to go home,
We got on the coach in pairs of two,
And left the whole resort.
