Dear Parent/Guardian,

Newsletter No 5 - 7th October, 2016

St Wilfrid's Day and Macmillan Afternoon Tea - Wednesday 12th October, 2016

Our celebration of St Wilfrid's feast day will take place on Wednesday and this is a non-uniform day (no charge).

We also intend to raise money for Macmillan Cancer Care with our Afternoon Tea. This will take place between 2 pm and 3.15 pm in the school hall and will be led by Y3.

We do hope you can come along and support this very worthwhile charity simply by coming to have a drink, cake, chat and donating!

We also need donations of cakes. Please send them in on Tuesday 11th or Wednesday 12th October.

We look forward to seeing you there.

Sacramental Preparation Mass – Sunday 16th October, 2016

The presentation mass for all children receiving the sacraments will take place in the school hall at 9 pm on 16th October, 2016.

During the mass the children will be presented to the parish and parishioners asked to pray for them during the forthcoming year.

Cafod

A lovely sight to see so many children dressed in brightly coloured clothes today for Cafod's 'Brighten Up' campaign. A total of £210 was raised. Many thanks.

Walk to School

The winning class for the month of September was 4D – many congratulations to them.

In total 223 children qualified for the September badge. These will be given out next week.

Can we beat this in October?

Harvest Mass

On Friday 14th October we will have our annual Harvest Mass. Donations of tinned or packet foods should be brought in from Monday and any fresh foods on Thursday 13th or Friday 14th. Many thanks.

Payments

A reminder that any monies for school meals, trips etc need to be sent into school with your child in a clearly named envelope. No monies should be paid via the school office. Thank you.

Tuck

After half term the cost of some tuck items has increased by 5p - aqua juice is now 50p, cuplets 35p and yoghurt 40p. Thank you.
